FARMERS CONGRESS SECOND DAY

Largely Increased Attendance—Many
From a Distance Camped on the Grounds.

The second day of the Texas Farmers Congress dawned clear and beautiful and at an early hour the many visitors were astir after a night of refreshing sleep. The beautiful College-campus and the many stately buildings are a great show within themselves and especially to those who have never seen them before. To inspect them was one of the causes of the early rising of the visitors, as the session of the Congress opens early and there is no time for inspection after that hour.

There was a large number of arrivals yesterday afternoon and last night and the register at 11 o'clock this morning showed 534 names. There are at least 600 in attendance and South Texas seems to have contributed a greater number than the black land counties of North Texas.

In the new exhibits shown in since yesterday is a fine collection of farm products, shown by G. A. Doss of Rockdale, a corn exhibit by B. S. Ford of Hutto, and a patent single-tree by M. M. Wheeler of Wimbarno.

Among the noted visitors that have come in since yesterday the reporter noted the following: Prof. A. M. Ten Eyck of the Kansas Agricultural College, President C. S. Work of the College of Industrial Arts at Denton, Chas. B. Metcalf of San Angelo, L. H. Scholl of New Braunfels, and P. H. Attwater, Industrial Agent of the Sunset lines.

The reporter noticed quite a number camped conveniently near to attend the sessions of the congress, some from a distance and some being citizens of Brazos county. This is an inexpensive way to attend the Congress, and the three or four days camp life makes an ideal outing. The Eagle hopes next year to see hundreds of Brazos county people camped there taking advantage of the great opportunities offered by the Congress.

KANSAS CITY STOCK MARKET.

Special to the Eagle.

Kansas, City Stock Yards, July 26.—There was an extraordinary run of quarantines at all the markets last week, and prices declined 25 to 60 cents during the week. Thin steers lost 40 to 60 cents, and the better grades of steers closed 25 to 35 lower cows and heifers 25 to 50 cents lower, calves irregular but 25 to 50 cents lower for the week. The run was 979 ear loads here, heaviest supply of quarantine cattle ever known at any market under normal conditions. The break in the prices checked shipments for today's market, the arrivals foot up only 116 ear loads. The run in the native division is also light today, and the result is an active, snappy market, with prices 10 to 25 cents higher. The quick rebound of the market, and the sharp contrast between conditions today and those existing last week, will probably draw out a better run later in the week, and the strength exhibited today promises a good market. Top steers today came from the feed lots of Stanfield Brothers, Henrietta, Texas, a five ear bunch weighing 1260 lbs at $5.15. Some of the Russell steers from Hardy, brought $4.70, other steers downward to $3.50, cows at $3.00 to $4.00, canners around $2.75, bulls $3 to $3.40, calves $4.50 to $7.00. A good rain yesterday extending from Colorado to Illinois and from Nebraska to Oklahoma practically covering the entire corn belt, has put more life in the stocker and feeder trade, and is a factor in the strength shown by the market today.

The hog run last week was 35,000 head, considerably below normal even for this season, market 10 to 15 lower for the week. Run is 6000 today, market steady to strong, heavy hogs at $7.80 to $7.90, medium weights $7.70 to $7.90, weights below 200 at $7.50 to $7.80. Shippers were the main support of the market today, one buyer taking twelve doubles of light hogs from 210 to 240, paying $7.80 to $7.90 therefor. The advance guard of a large army of sows is appearing, having weaned the spring crop of pigs. These sows are on a more slippery footing than hogs showing quality, and only slimness of receipts protects them from the hatred of the buyers now.

Fat muttons closed up on lambs a little more last week, and the margin between them is now considered more settled. Lambs are likely to exhibit some shakiness for another week or two, till the run of spring lambs from the South and Eastern points is over. Run today is 6000, market weak on lambs, others steady. Top lambs are worth $7.60, wethers and yearlings $5.50, ewes $5.25. Feeding stock is higher, lambs up to $6.00, wethers $4.50, breeding ewes $5.25, yearling ewes around $5.75, for choice stuff in each class.

"WILFUL, MALICIOUS, RECKLESS AND MALIGNANT LIAR"

Endearing Term Used by a Georgia
Legislator of an Atlanta Preacher.

Special to the Eagle.

Atlanta, July 28.—The anti-prohibitionists in the state legislature forgot their truce yesterday, rolled up their sleeves, grabbed war clubs and sailed into the opposition with bitter invective. Anderson of Savannah, who is fighting the near beer bill, arose to a question of personal privilege. He was white faced, trembling, and had to restrain his lips several times before he found his voice.

"I notice," he began, "that a local minister named Rev. Broughton is quoted in the press as having said in a sermon I was fighting the near beer bill because I bought stock in a Savannah brewery after the prohibition bill passed, and I was the only man in the state who had made any money out of prohibition in Georgia. I desire to say this preacher is a wilful, malicious, reckless, malignant and vicious liar."

"I fully expected to be assailed and vilified when I obeyed my constituents' will and opposed the Alexander bill. But I never even dreamed a minister of the gospel, a follower of Him who preached charity and taught truth, would stoop to become a slanderer and a common liar. In the first place, no Savannah brewery nor stock in one has been sold since prohibition went into effect. Hence this is another lie of the reverend hypocrite's."

"About fifteen years ago I bought ten shares in the Savannah brewery and paid a hundred dollars a share. I ought to state that when the prohibition bill was passed and when I returned and tried to sell my stock, I could not."

TEXAS CONFEDERATE REUNION

Special to the Eagle.

Mount Pleasant, Texas, July 28.—

Realizing that, by the very force of nature, they will probably never again have the opportunity of entertaining the Confederate veterans, the citizens of Mount Pleasant are bending every energy to make the State reunion which opens here tomorrow an event long to be remembered. Many visitors to the reunion put in appearance today. All arrivals were met at the depot and escorted to the homes of private families where they will be entertained during the two days gathering.

The veterans and their friends will rally at the court house at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and march in procession to Dellwood Park, where the sessions of the convention are to be held in the auditorium. Gen. K. M. Van Zandt will preside over the gathering and the address of welcome will be made by Mayor J. V. Moore. The business meetings will continue two days and will be liberally interspersed with features of entertainment. Each evening there will be camp-fire meetings with addresses by prominent veterans and others.
